Table 4 – Fund-an-Item – closes at 8:00 PM

Multiple donation opportunities available for each item at various prices. Add your bid number to one of these items to support outreach programs and services through a gift to the Foundation directed to the area or program of your choice.

401. Cancer navigator program.

A caring and knowledgeable nurse works with patients and families to provide an explanation of medical procedures, emotional support and information about insurance and community resources for cancer patients and their families. We served 250 individuals in 2008

402. Charity care for area residents. $3.8 million in charity care provided in 2008

Many of our neighbors and friends who need vital health care services are unable to pay for them. Whether a screening for diagnosis, appropriate treatment or surgery, everyone in our community should have access to quality health care.

403. Community health screenings for 9,000 adults. Cost $20,520

Hendricks Regional Health provided numerous free health screenings for 8,489 participants in 2008.

404. History wall – Cost $25,000.

Located in the new addition currently under construction as part of the Danville campus, this special photographic mural will celebrate and reflect the nearly 50-year history and growth of Hendricks Regional Health since it opened its doors in 1962. Recognition will be provided with the mural for donations of $500 or more for this project.

405. Prenatal labor and delivery class for expectant parents. Cost $50,000

Hendricks Regional Health is the only hospital in Indiana to provide these important classes for expectant parents at no charge; costs at other hospitals range from $80 to $120. We served 499 moms in 2008.

406. Provide durable medical goods. In addition to health services, Hendricks Regional Health also helps needy families with important items such as wheelchairs, walkers, shower aids or crutches, for example.

407. Student scholarships – Total of $30,000 to be awarded in 2010; $2,000 per year for 15 students.

For 12 years, Hendricks Regional Health Foundation has awarded scholarship funds to deserving Hendricks County students who are pursuing health care careers at an Indiana college or university. Forty-three scholarships have been awarded through the years; 15 students currently receive funding.
